

CHAT SUMMARY :

QATESOL Webinar Teaching Pronunciation: Exploring the phonemes of English

8 September 2020 Presenter: Eleanor Kettle

QATESOL:

Suggested resources from Eleanor:

Oxford Learner's Dictionaries

<https://www.oxfordlearnersdictionaries.com/>

- Cambridge Learner's Dictionary

<https://dictionary.cambridge.org/dictionary/learner-english/>

- YouGlish

<https://youglish.com/>

- Google Ngram Viewer

<https://books.google.com/ngrams>

- The Affixes Dictionary

<https://www.affixes.org/>

- Etymonline

<https://www.etymonline.com/>

- Linguistics and Language Podcasts list (from Superlinguo)

<https://www.superlinguo.com/post/158448074588/linguistics-and-language-podcasts>

- Crash Course in Linguistics (coming soon)

<https://youtu.be/eDop3FDoUzk>

01:13:19 Has anyone used the pronpack with their class? Just wondering if it's good.

01:13:42 Is pronpack for Australian English or another variety of English?

01:14:47 It is British. I use the charts and it works fine here

01:19:20 QATESOL Administration: "The Sounds of English" by Pronunciation Studio is also very useful - British based.

01:20:21 Just wondering if there are any Australian English based resources at all that would be good in the classroom?

01:21:49 Ann Baker's Ship or Sheep (that Eleanor mentioned earlier) and Tree or Three are both good

01:22:13 ... and both Australian

01:22:27 Sound Spelling Workbook and Charts by AMES - Australian

01:24:31 Lesley: Another Australian one: Give it a Go! Teaching Pronunciation to Adults

By Lynda Yates and Beth Zielinski

http://www.ameprc.mq.edu.au/data/assets/pdf_file/0006/276135/interactive_sm.pdf

01:26:40 Michael Carey at the University of Sunshine Coast has done some great work on Australian English sounds

01:27:55 AMES Sounds charts are a good option for adults as they have pictures and words relevant to adults' daily lives.

01:33:40 The Oxford Learner Dictionary app is excellent too - costs $$$, but look out for specials

01:34:17 howjsay <https://howjsay.com/search?word=australians&wid=1024&flash=y>

01:34:48 very similar

01:35:29 I was showing a Nursing student howjsay this morning - excellent for medical terms

01:35:55 But YouGlish is better for words in context

01:39:47 Thank you.

01:39:49 So good - thank you!!

01:39:58 Thanks very much

01:40:08 for the sounds of Australian English

01:40:21 Thank you Eleanor

01:40:31 An excellent PD - Thank you so much Eleanor

01:40:42 Thank you Eleanor! - need to leave now. Bye everyone! :)

01:40:45

01:40:45 Thank you Eleanor

01:40:58 thanks a lot, very good PD

01:40:59 thanks so much for this comprehensive PD!

01:41:04 http://www.ameprc.mq.edu.au/resources/professional_development_resources/give_it_a_go

01:41:29 Thank you so much.

01:41:33 Thanks for this useful PD

01:41:39 Thank you - You really are an expert in this subject!

01:41:40 Great!!!! Thanks Eleanor.

01:41:42 Thank you so much Eleanor, very helpful PD

01:41:49 Thanks Eleanor. Thanks Elene and Gae, Thanks QATESOL!

01:41:52 Thank you very much

01:41:52 Thank you Eleanor

01:41:58 Thanks so much for this presentation.

01:42:02 thanks Eleanor. much appreciated

01:42:04 Thank you Eleanor. I still think you make the best charts!

01:42:09 Such an excellent, informative and interesting PD! Thank you so much!